Mr. Jong-Won Park served as a public prosecutor from 2012. He worked for many years as a digital forensic investigator, collecting digital evidence at numerous search and seizure sites, analyzing the seized evidence, preparing reports, and where necessary, appearing as a witness in court to prove the integrity, accuracy, reliability, and authenticity of the evidence. Mr. Park later worked at the Transparency Management Institute, where he carried out various risk assessments and internal investigations for companies combining digital forensics and accounting analysis.

In particular, Mr. Park worked as a digital forensic investigator at the Seoul Southern District Prosecutors' Office, which is an investigation office focusing on financial securities crimes, and the Suwon (High) District Prosecutors' Office, which is an investigation office focusing on high-tech industry protection, where he gained extensive experience in investigating digital evidence in various financial and tax crimes and various industrial technology leaks.

Mr. Park worked at the Supreme Prosecutors' Office, the Seoul Central District Prosecutors' Office, the Seoul Southern District Prosecutors' Office, and the Suwon High Prosecutors' Office, where he received a commendation at the level of the Vice Minister for excellent service to the prosecution. He joined Shin & Kim in September 2024.
