

Seon-Min Lim

CPA

TEL +82-2-316-4949
FAX +82-2-756-6226
E-MAIL smlim@shinkim.com

Ms. Seon-Min Lim is a foreign certified public accountant in the Trade Remedies Group at Shin & Kim.

Ms. Lim advises clients on responses to antidumping and countervailing duty investigations. She has built expertise in a wide range of trade remedy matters, including antidumping and countervailing duty investigations initiated by foreign trade remedy authorities and antidumping investigations conducted by the Korea Trade Commission.

Professional Career

2026-Present	Shin & Kim LLC
2020-2023	The International Trade Consulting
2019-2020	Grant Thornton Daejoo

Key Experience

Representation of Korean Producers in Overseas Antidumping Investigations

- European Union's original antidumping investigation on aluminum wheels for motor vehicles made in Morocco
- Türkiye government's original antidumping investigation on Polyester made in Korea
- Pre-analysis of a U.S. antidumping investigation on wind towers made in Korea

Representation of Korean Producers in Overseas Countervailing Duty Investigations

- U.S. government’s original countervailing duty investigation on seamless pipes made in Korea
- U.S. government’s countervailing duty investigation on cold-rolled steel sheets made in Korea
- U.S. government’s countervailing duty investigation on cut-to-length plate made in Korea

Representation of Petitioners in Korea Trade Commission Antidumping Investigations

- Korea Trade Commission’s antidumping investigation on stainless steel plate made in Japan

Education

2012-2017 Yonsei University Mirae Campus (B.S. in Mathematics)

Qualifications

2021 Certified Public Accountant, Washington

Languages

Korean, English