Ms. Yeonho Song is an associate at Shin & Kim, where her practice focuses on corporate governance and management control disputes, financial disputes, and corporate criminal matters.

Prior to joining Shin & Kim, Ms. Song served as a judicial research officer at the Uijeongbu District Court and the Seoul High Court. During her tenure, she worked in the Criminal Appeals Division of the Uijeongbu District Court and in the Administrative Divisions (labor and land expropriation) and Civil Divisions (construction and labor) of the Seoul High Court, gaining experience in a broad range of criminal, civil, and administrative proceedings. Ms. Song subsequently practiced at Dongin Law Group, where she handled litigation and advisory matters across various practice areas.

Drawing on her experience in both the judiciary and private practice, she provides legal advice on complex disputes involving a wide range of factual and legal issues.
