Mr. Hyunuk Park is an Advisor at Shin & Kim, and provides advisory services on competition law and fair trade matters.

Mr. Park accumulated broad practical experience across all aspects of fair trade work over approximately 20 years at the Korea Fair Trade Commission (KFTC), where he served in key divisions including the Seoul and Daejeon regional offices, the Market Supervision Bureau, the Competition Policy Bureau, and the Consumer Policy Bureau, handling case proceedings, investigation procedures, regulatory reform, and policy development. In particular, he conducted investigations and policy work in a wide range of areas, including anticompetitive practices, unfair trade practices, subcontracting, consumer transactions, and digital platform-related issues.

Drawing on this extensive experience, he currently provides advisory services on the full spectrum of fair trade regulations, including the Monopoly Regulation and Fair Trade Act, the Fair Transactions in Subcontracting Act, the Fair Transactions in Franchise Business Act, the Act on Fair Transactions in Large-scale Retail Business, the Fair Transactions in Agency Business Act, the Act on Fair Labeling and Advertising, the Act on the Consumer Protection in Electronic Commerce, the Act on Door-to-Door Sales, the Installment Transactions Act, and the Act on the Regulation of Terms and Conditions.
