Mr. Young-Joon Park is a partner at Shin & Kim. Mr. Park's main practice areas include M&A, real estate, general corporate affairs, international transactions, E-Discovery and intellectual property rights.

Since 2007, Mr. Park has advised on numerous major M&A and real estate alternative investments transactions, including mergers and acquisitions, corporate restructurings, real estate funds (REFs), and private equity funds (PEFs). Mr. Park performed E-discovery work and has accumulated extensive experience in a variety of structured transactions both domestically and internationally.

In recent years, Mr. Park has also focused on cross-border transactions, including advising on foreign funds, foreign companies, and real estate investments and has gained a wealth of experience in successfully leading transactions with various structures, including Kakaopay's acquisition of a U.S. securities firm, acquisition of data centers, apartments, and office buildings in the U.S. and Europe by IGIS, Merits, and LB Asset Management, and registration of foreign funds and investments by overseas asset managers such as Aberdeen, HarbourVest, Partners Group, AEW, and Stepstone. In addition, he has also represented domestic and foreign companies and funds across a variety of industries in friendly mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, venture capital, and formation of Korean subsidiaries. Furthermore, Mr. Park has advised on a number of hostile takeovers and general securities transactions. Mr. Park is also known as an e-discovery expert with strong engineering background and extensive knowledge in the legal IT industry.

Mr. Park graduated from the Department of Mechanical and Aerospace Engineering of the College of Engineering at the Seoul National University. He holds a Master's degree (LL.M) from Georgetown Law School.

Mr. Park has written on various legal issues in the areas of mergers and acquisitions, private equity, and real estate and has participated as a speaker or discussant in numerous domestic and international seminars, including a recent seminar on "Risks and Crisis Response Strategies for Foreign Real Estate Investment" at the Korea Chamber of Commerce and Industry, which attracted much attention from domestic and foreign asset managers and institutional investors.
