Mr. Byoungchun Choi is an advisor at Shin & Kim, where he advises on legislative strategy, overseas regulatory matters, ESG, real estate, and inbound and outbound investments.

Mr. Choi previously served as a legislative aide at the National Assembly, where he handled legislative and policy matters in the financial services and antitrust sectors. He later worked as a policy advisor to the Seoul Metropolitan Government, overseeing policy planning and coordination across municipal affairs. He has also served in leadership roles, including as deputy head of a political party and as director of an economic research institute.

Currently, drawing on his extensive hands-on experience in legislation and public policy, Mr. Choi provides strategic advisory services to clients across both public and private sector clients based on his broad understanding of policy, legislation, and industry strategy.
